

We give you thanks, O God

D A Bm Em A⁷ D

1 We give you thanks, O God, be -
 2 "I choose the ap - point - ed time; I
 3 "Boast not!" I tell the proud; the

G D G D A D A⁷ Em D

cause your name is near. All speak of your ma - judge with jus - tice sure. When earth and all its wick - ed I ad - dress: 'Do not lift up your

G A⁷ D G D A D

jes - tic deeds; your voice we al - so hear:
 peo - ple quake, its pil - lars I se - cure.
 heads with pride or speak with haugh - ti - ness.' "

4 No one in all the earth
 can truly give renown.
 God is the judge; he raises one
 and puts another down.

5 The LORD's hand holds a cup
 with wine of powerful blend;
 he pours it out, and wicked ones
 must drink it to the end.

6 God's works I will proclaim,
 and Jacob's God I'll praise.
 The wicked's strength I will destroy;
 the righteous I will raise.